Victory !
After more than 5 years of negotiations, a great majority of States adopted the Declaration in September at the United Nations Human Rights Council.

Next step : New York
The Declaration will now go through the UN General Assembly Third Committee in October, before going to the General Assembly for a final vote in December.

Let’s mobilise !
The next step for citizens worldwide is to pressure our governments and for States to vote for the Declaration’s ultimate adoption.